This Algorithm is based on the latest (2015) American Heart Association standards and guidelines.

American Health Training Center | www.AmericanHealthTrainingCenter.com
Monitor for and treat agitation and seizures
Monitor for and treat hypoglycemia
Assess blood gas, serum electrolytes, calcium
If patient remains comatose after resuscitation from cardiac arrest, consider therapeutic hypothermia (32°C-34°C)
Consider consultation and patient transport to tertiary care center

This Algorithm is based on the latest (2015) American Heart Association standards and guidelines.